LAMOREE (A. Chung) – raced wide without cover throughout the event. Stewards questioned co-trainer, Mr R. Jolly, in relation to the instructions provided to apprentice A. Chung in this event; in particular in relation to the filly racing wide on the track. Mr Jolly stated that he had walked the track with A. Chung prior to the event and was of the belief that the track was superior at approximately five horses off the fence, and for that reason had instructed A. Chung to attempt to settle in that racing line.

Correct weight for this event was delayed to allow Mr R. Daniel, trainer of CHEH CHEH CHARLEE, which was declared equal deadheat for third, and that mare's rider, J. Toeroek, to view the official photo image for third. After doing so both Mr Daniel and J. Toeroek, made a submission to Stewards that they believed that the judge had made an error and that CHEH CHEH CHARLEE had clearly finished in front of EM BRYAN, and should be placed third in its own right. Stewards opened an inquiry and after taking further evidence from Mr Daniel, J. Toeroek and the judge, Mr A. Quinton, were satisfied in accordance with AR214(4)(b) that the judge had not made a mistake in the determination of the finishing order of the race, and declared correct weight on the numbers originally semaphored.
